

RE

- Write a poem that reflects on the sacrifice that Jesus made for us, giving up His life on the cross.

English

- Imagine you have been transported back in time to the stone age - write a letter home explaining what has happened and what you have found there.
- Write a diary entry for a typical Stone Age child - What would they do each day? What interesting things might

Maths

- We are in the 21st Century calculate the difference in years between the current year and:
 - When the Stone Age began.
 - When the Iron Age began.

History

- Watch the movie 'Ice Age' and decide what things you think are fact, and which are fiction.
- Can you design a 'How to fight like a stone age warrior' manual?

Half-Termly

Activity Grid Suggestions

Year 3 Spring 2

Topic - The Stone Age

Design Technology

- Design your own Stone Age settlement and build it out of materials, Lego or on Minecraft.
- Create your own piece of Stone Age jewelry using natural materials you can find nearby!

Reading

- Read a story based in the past and think about whether it was before or after the Stone Age - how were things different in the two time periods?
- Create your own picture book for a younger member of your family or friend.

Little and Often

- Recap your 3, 4 and 5 times tables.
- What are some of the landscapes you would find in India?
- What are the three types of skeleton?
- When do we use 'a' and 'an'?

Health and Wellbeing

- Take a walk with a friend or member of your family and have a chat about how you are feeling.
- Can you challenge yourself to eat five pieces of fruit or vegetables everyday this week? Which

