We are looking for a dedicated and organised Attendance and Admissions Officer to join our team and play a key role in improving pupil attendance and engagement.

Working closely with teaching and pastoral staff, pupils, families and external agencies, you will help to identify and remove barriers to attendance. You will be the first point of contact for absence related enquiries, responsible for monitoring attendance data, following up on absences, making home visits, and promoting the importance of good attendance across the academy.

You will also lead the school admissions process through to enrolment, liaising effectively with all parties and addressing queries.

You will need excellent communication skills, a calm and professional approach, and the ability to handle sensitive situations with discretion.

We're looking for someone who has:

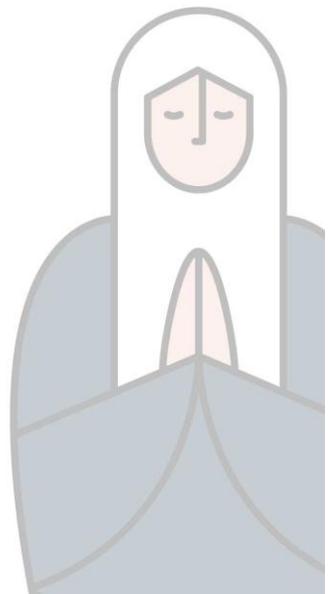

- A proactive and empathetic approach
- Excellent organisational and IT skills
- Experience working with young people and families
- Knowledge of attendance procedures and safeguarding

In return, we offer:

- A supportive and inclusive working environment
- Opportunities for professional development
- A chance to be part of a team making a real difference

As Head Teacher, I warmly welcome you to visit our school.

For an application form, along with information regarding the responsibilities of the post, job description and person specification, please see our school website - St Modwen's
