

Creation The physical processes of our planet, and how our continents, oceans and countries join through mapwork and the use of globes, atlases and digital mapping.	Community The human processes and how they work alongside the physical geography of our planet through specific examples, fieldwork and case studies.	Compassion The politics of geography, the bounds of physical geography, the rights and responsibilities we have as global citizens and the ways in which a geographical home impacts a person's future.
CARITAS IN ACTION- Stewardship	CARITAS IN ACTION- Family and community Solidarity and the common Good	CARITAS IN ACTION- The dignity of the human person Rights and responsibilities
Year 1 - Burton and Britain	Year 1- Landmarks and events (Warsaw and Olympics)	Year 1- Jamaica and the Caribbean (Race and identity)
Year 2- Beaches and coastlines	Year 2- Discovery and innovation (Explorers and Egypt)	Year 2- Africa/Explorers (A rapidly developing and growing continent)
Year 3- Rivers and the Water Cycle	Year 3- Discovery and innovation (Canals and bridges)	Year 3- India (Poverty on the world stage)
Year 4- Earthquakes, volcanoes	Year 4- Landmarks and events (Italy and Olympics)	Year 4- Italy/Greece (Tourism and travel)
Year 5- Mountains and vegetation	Year 5- Landmarks and events (Cities and settlements)	Year 5- Mexico (Refugeeism)
Year 6- Biomes and climate zones	Year 6- Discovery and innovation (Deforestation and trade links)	Year 6- Trade links and Brazil (Equality and Deforestation)